ORDER

This matter is before the court on the plaintiff-debtors' motion for summary judgment (Fil. No. 10). No objection was filed. Bruce C. Barnhart represents the debtors. No appearance has been made for the defendants. Evidence and a brief were filed and, pursuant to the court's authority under Nebraska Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7056-1, the motion was taken under advisement without oral arguments.

This adversary proceeding was filed to avoid a junior lien on the debtors' real property. There are two consensual liens on the debtors' home. The first lien is held by CitiMortgage, Inc., which holds a secured claim in the amount of $185,069.93. The second is held by The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A. as successor to JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A., and/or its servicing agents GMAC RESCAP, LLC, and Homecomings Financial, LLC, in the amount of $39,107.51. The debtors value the property at $170,000.00, as of May 28, 2007, based on an appraisal prepared at the debtors' request. Accordingly, the debtors assert that, based on the lack of equity in the property, the junior lien is wholly unsecured under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a) and is void under § 506(d).

The following facts are uncontroverted:

1. The plaintiffs are the debtors in this Chapter 13 proceeding.

2. The plaintiffs are the owners of real property legally described as Lot 602, Westin Hills West, Douglas County, Nebraska, commonly known as 15263 Armstrong Street, Omaha, Nebraska 68116.

3. The above-described property has at all relevant times been the personal residence of the plaintiffs herein.

4. CitiMortgage, Inc., holds the first lien against the real property in the approximate amount of $185,069.93.

5. The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A. as successor to JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A., and/or its servicing agents GMAC RESCAP, LLC, and Homecomings Financial, LLC, holds the second lien against the property in the approximate amount of $39,107.51.

6. Based upon an appraisal conducted at the debtors' request as of May 28, 2007, the value of the personal residence in question is $170,000.00.

7. Upon information and belief, the defendants' lien is wholly unsecured.

8. The plaintiffs filed this adversary complaint on August 17, 2011.

9. The summons and complaint were timely served on the defendants on August 26, 28, and 29, 2011.

10. The time for filing an answer or other response expired on September 17, 2011.

11. No answer or other response has been filed or served by the defendants.

12. The defendants are not infants or incompetent persons as set out in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 7055(b)(2), and are not in the military service.

Debtors in Chapter 13 may "strip off" or wholly avoid the lien of a junior lienholder where there is no equity securing the security interest in the property. Fisette v. Keller (In re Fisette), 455 B.R. 177 (B.A.P. 8th Cir. 2011).

The analysis was explained in Fisette:

[T]he Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals provided a helpful summary of the position we follow in this case:

The message, to recapitulate, is this:

— Section 1322(b)(2) prohibits modification of the rights of a holder of a secured claim if the security consists of a lien on the debtor's principal residence;

— Section 1322(b)(2) permits modification of the rights of an unsecured claimholder;

— Whether a lien claimant is the holder of a “secured claim” or an “unsecured claim” depends, thanks to § 506(a), on whether the claimant's security interest has any actual “value;”

— If a claimant's lien on the debtor's homestead has a positive value, no matter how small in relation to the total claim, the claimant holds a “secured claim” and the claimant's contractual rights under the loan documents are not subject to modification by the Chapter 13 plan;

— If a claimant's lien on the debtor's homestead has no value at all, on the other hand, the claimant holds an “unsecured claim” and the claimant's contractual rights are subject to modification by the plan.

Fisette, 455 B.R. at 183-184 (quoting Lane v. W. Interstate Bancorp (In re Lane), 280 F.3d 663, 669 (6th Cir. 2002)).

In the present case, there is no dispute that the second lien is wholly unsecured. Accordingly, it may be stripped off.

Summary judgment is appropriate only if the record, when viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party, shows there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c) (made applicable to adversary proceedings in bankruptcy by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7056); see, e.g., Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322-23 (1986); Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249-50 (1986); Aviation Charter, Inc. v. Aviation Research Group/US, 416 F.3d 864, 868 (8th Cir. 2005); Ferris, Baker Watts, Inc. v. Stephenson (In re MJK Clearing, Inc.), 371 F.3d 397, 401 (8th Cir. 2004).

To withstand a motion for summary judgment, the non-moving party “has an affirmative burden to designate specific facts creating a triable controversy.” Crossley v. Georgia-Pac. Corp., 355 F.3d 1112, 1113 (8th Cir. 2004) (internal citations omitted). Failure to oppose a basis for summary judgment constitutes a waiver of that argument. Satcher v. Univ. of Ark. at Pine Bluff Bd. of Trs., 558 F.3d 731, 734-35 (8th Cir. 2009). “Rule 56(c) mandates the entry of summary judgment, after adequate time for discovery and upon motion, against a party who fails to make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to that party’s case, and on which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial.” Celotex, 477 U.S. at 322.

There are no material facts in dispute here. The debtors may strip off the wholly unsecured junior lien held by The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A. as successor to JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A., and/or its servicing agents GMAC RESCAP, LLC, and Homecomings Financial, LLC, for the purposes of the Chapter 13 plan. However, the lien shall not be avoided until the plaintiffs complete the Chapter 13 plan in its entirety. In the event the Chapter 13 case is converted or dismissed prior to plan completion, the lienholder would continue to hold a valid and unavoided lien secured by the plaintiffs’ residential real property. For this reason no documentation of lien avoidance need or shall be recorded until such time as the plaintiffs successfully complete the Chapter 13 plan.

IT IS ORDERED: The plaintiff-debtors' motion for summary judgment (Fil. No. 10) is granted. Separate judgment will be entered.
